

Lou is mum to son Liam, born at Ata Rangi in 2014.

She has a passion for high standard quality care, and as a result of Liam's birth, a new-found passion for pregnancy, the birth experience, babies and families.

Hawke's Bay born and bred, she describes the transition to motherhood as "awe inspiring" and now wants to use her experience and the understanding she has gained of Hawke's Bay Maternity Services to support others.

Maternity Services Consumer Member

"I would love to support you to have your say, share your thoughts and provide feedback of your experiences. I would love to hear what's important to you about maternity care for you, your baby and your whānau and how you would like the service to meet your needs in the future."

Lou Curtis
maternity.consumermember@hbdhb.govt.nz

"Be your baby's voice"

